

10:30 AM	Registration of participants
11:00 AM	Introduction of the crew We will introduce the working group who has realized the project
11:30 AM	The current obstetric population and childbirth: what is changing C. Gustavino, M.D. - Head of OB/GYN Dept. - S. Martino Hospital, Genoa  Dr. Gustavino will frame the topic of cesarean section in the current socio-cultural context, in which the decreasing birth rate is a discussed and important matter
12:00 PM	The long history of cesarean section M. Paratore - OB/GYN Resident - University of Genoa  The evolution of cesarean section: from ancient times to today's surgery
12:30 PM	Lunch
14:00 PM	A Good Idea: the new Caesarean Section F. Alessandri, M.D. - OB/GYN Dept. - S. Martino Hospital, Genoa  Dr. Alessandri will show how the idea of using a barbed suture in cesarean section came about
14:30 PM	Cesarean section with barbed suture: the Genoa Method M. G. Centurioni, M.D. - OB/GYN Dept. - S. Martino Hospital, Genoa  Dr. Centurioni will show the details of the surgical technique
15:00 PM	Barbed sutures in gynecological surgery Prof. S. Ferrero - OB/GYN Assistant Professor - University of Genoa  Prof. Ferrero will show the use of barbed sutures in gynaecological surgery (myomectomy, vaginal cuff, sacropexy)
15:30 PM	The British Experience H. Simpson, M.D. - Maternity Department, James Cook University Hospital, Middlesbrough, UK  Dr. Simpson will present the results of using barbed sutures in cesarean section, in a UK tertiary referral hospital
15:50 PM	From the Idea to the paper F. Barra - Ph.D. Student - University of Genoa  How a good idea can become a standardized technique and then a paper
16:20 PM	Vaginal delivery after cesarean section with the Genoa Method A. Nappini - OB/GYN Resident - University of Genoa  What are the outcomes of vaginal childbirth after cesarean section with barbed sutures
17:00 PM	Global overview on Caesarean Section. How the big Companies can collaborate with obstetricians M. Tang - Sr. Product Manager - Medtronic Global Marketing - North Haven, USA  A joint venture between a big company and clinicians
18:00 PM	Talk show A. Bonsignore, C. Gustavino, F. Alessandri, A. Amidani, V. Michelerio, K. Pistelli  Round table with doctors and midwives
18:30 PM	Take home messages

You can follow the live broadcast by registering on the website: www.cesareogenova.it